

MUST STAY IN JAIL.

Cass Hite's Application for Bail is Denied.

Judge Borch Has a Very Busy Day in Probate & a Myriad of Orders Issued.

The supreme court met yesterday afternoon and handed down a decision in the application of Cass Hite for bond pending an appeal to the supreme court. The application was denied, and consequently Hite will have to wear the stripes from now on for the next twelve years, unless at the January term of the court of last resort the finding of the lower court is reversed and he is sent back to Provo for a new trial.
